

Have a look around your house and find something you like to touch, something you like to smell, something you like to look at, something you like the sound of and something you like the taste of.

